

6516206962.txt

Leave a good thing alone! Constant weather and traffic reports help us all. why should we have to wait untill the end of a four minute set of commercials to know something about the weather or traffic that we need to know now. why let lobbyists make the choices? If you want it, pay your money and enjoy. If you want what we have had in the past it's your decision as well. why does the feds have to get their hands into everything?